Office Hours for Students
I will be holding office hours for students on Tuesday afternoons between 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. Students wishing to see me may either sign up in advance with Rachel Lukens in room 263, email rll35@cornell.edu, or call 607-255-3527.

FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR
Fall 2010
• First-Year Practice Exam: Class of 2013
   A practice exam is given each year for students enrolled in first-year courses during the fall semester. Each student will be given an exam in one of his or her courses. The scheduled date for the practice exam is Tuesday, October 26, 4:30-5:20 p.m. You are encouraged to take the practice exam, but you are not required to do so. The exam roster will be posted on in the glass-enclosed bulletin board the day before the exam.
Students in first-year courses received information about using Exam4 software for the Practice Exam on Wednesday, October 20, 2010.

- Law School Course Pre-registration for spring 2011
  - To the Classes of 2011 & 2012 - On-Line Pre-Registration for spring 2011 Law School courses is available online at the Registrar’s site (http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu) until 4:00 p.m.
  - November 12, 2010. Instructions and details for on-line Law School Course Pre-registration, updated course information, registration forms, and degree requirements is available at the Registrar’s site.

- Fall Term Examination Period
  - Examinations begin Wednesday, December 8
  - Examinations end Friday, December 17

- Using your lap top for fall 2010 exams
  - Installation of Exam4 software: November 1-10, 2010. You will receive information about the process by email to your Cornell NetID email address at the end of October.

- Fall 10 Final Examinations - Exam Conflicts
  - Students who have exam conflicts are reminded to notify the Law School Registrar's Office, in writing, using the online Deferral Request link, which is available at the Registrar’s website: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu/ by Wednesday, November 10, 2010, of the conflict, and should note which exam they wish rescheduled. The exam schedule is available at the Registrars website at: https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/Fall_Exam_Schedule.pdf

- Exams and dictionaries
  - New JD students whose native or working language is not normally English may request the use of a non-legal dictionary for examinations by submitting a written request to the Dean of Students by Wednesday, November 10, 2010. Continuing JD students who received permission to use a non-legal dictionary previously do not need to make another request. The non-legal dictionary must be supplied by the student and the dictionary may be in print or electronic format; provided, however, that any electronic dictionary must be a stand-alone dictionary with a set memory (e.g., a dictionary program that is loaded on a laptop computer does not qualify). All electronic dictionaries must be approved by the Registrar well in advance of the examinations.

- Examinations - For J.D. students who are studying in English for the first time, please make an appointment with Dean Lukingbeal, room 165, by Wednesday, November 10, 2010, to discuss examination procedures.

- LL.M. students with questions regarding the use of a non-legal dictionary for examinations should contact Assistant Dean Charles Cramton.

- Winter Intersession and Summer Study
  - Students may petition the faculty for permission to take law courses in summer-school programs or winter intersession programs of other ABA-approved law schools, and upon their successful completion, to receive credit toward their Cornell J.D. degree. In no case is credit in excess of 6 hours granted for all such summer or intersession law studies. Petition forms are available on line at the Registrars site under Course Registration/Registration Forms (https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/Summer_Winter_Credit_Petition.pdf). Interested students should submit this form request to the Law School Registrars Office (addressed to Dean Lukingbeal) by November 1 for winter intersession programs and by April 1 for summer 2011 programs.
• Past Notices
Refer to previous issues of Scoops (available on-line in the Back Issues section) for information pertaining to transcript requests, certifications, bar registration, attendance and absences, etc.

FROM ANNE LUKINGBEAL, ASSOCIATE DEAN AND DEAN OF STUDENTS

• The Weekly Perk for Faculty and Students
Wednesday, October 27
3:00-4:00 p.m. in the Foyer
Co-sponsored by the Dean’s Office, the Dean of Students Office, and CLSA. Enjoy a cup of coffee with your faculty and friends, every Wednesday at 3:00 except during fall break.

• Course Selection Questions?
If you would like advice about course selection for this coming semester, please feel free to make an appointment to discuss this with me. To schedule a convenient time, just contact Rosemary Lacey at rtl1@cornell.edu

• Seasonal Flu Vaccination Clinics for students, faculty and staff
Wednesday, November 10:  9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Biotech at the Benefair
Monday, December 6:  10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Vet School Gala Atrium

Remember to take your Cornell ID. There is no charge for the vaccine. This year, a single flu vaccine will provide protection against both H1N1 and seasonal flu strains. It is recommended that every individual over the age of 6 months get vaccinated as soon as possible. Review the schedule and learn where and when to get vaccinated:
http://www.gannett.cornell.edu/topics/flu/vaccine/where-when.cfm

• Extra time on exams for J.D. students studying in English for the first time.
Cornell Law School has a policy which allows a student additional time on law exams if he/she has not previously studied in English for at least a year. If you have not previously studied in English and would like to request extra time on your exams this year, please make an appointment to see me by November 10, 2010. To schedule an appointment, please call my assistant, Rosemary Lacey, at 255-0565 or come to the Registrar’s Office.

• Academic Credit Available for January Intersession Opportunity
The ILR School is again offering its January intersession internship program to Law students in a three week internship in a Massachusetts or New York unemployment office. A number of sites are available, including options in other states. If you are staying in the Ithaca area over the break, you may be able to spend your internship working on unemployment appeals, supporting the work of the Neighborhood Legal Services Office. The internship begins the first week in January. Upon completion of the internship, participating law students will receive one S/U Law credit for the course (as well as a $350 stipend). The application deadline is November 5, 2010. Please note that you must attend an orientation on December 1 in Ithaca. Law students will be supervised by Professor Angela Cornell. The website provides additional information, but the credit option varies for law students. For more information go to: www.ilr.cornell.edu/dolapuinternship/

FROM LARRY BUSH, THE BERGER INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM

Monday, October 25
  2:30 p.m.
  Room 277
  The Berger International Legal Studies Program Speaker Series presents Scott MacLeod, Professor of Practice in the School of Global Affairs and Public Policy (GAPP) at the American University in Cairo and Time Magazine’s Middle East Correspondent, speaking on “Middle East Peace: Impossible to Achieve or Easier Than We Think?”

Scott MacLeod currently teaches in the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication at the American University in Cairo and serves as managing editor of The Cairo Review of Global Affairs, a GAPP publication.
Prior to joining the American University in 2010, MacLeod worked as a correspondent and bureau chief for 35 years for TIME Magazine and United Press International. He was TIME's Middle East correspondent from 1995 to 2010 and bureau chief in Johannesburg, South Africa in 1989-95, and writer in TIME's World Section in 1988. In 1985-87 he was a reporter in TIME's Cairo Bureau.

MacLeod contributed to numerous TIME cover stories, including reports on the September 11, 2001 attacks, the U.S.-led intervention in Iraq, the transition from apartheid to democracy in South Africa, Iran's revolutionary transformation and the 1991 Gulf War. Others were on Saudi Arabia, Morocco, Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat, famine in Africa, the global scourge of land mines and the death of Princess Diana. He reported the 1994 TIME Man of the Year cover story that featured Nelson Mandela and FW de Klerk.

MacLeod has published many exclusive interviews with Arab and African personalities, including former South African presidents Nelson Mandela and FW de Klerk, Emir of Qatar Sheikh Hamad bin Khalifa al Thani, Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat, Moroccan King Mohammed VI, Jordan's Kings Hussein and Abdullah II, Libyan leader Muammar Gadafy, Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, Saudi King Abdullah bin Abdel Aziz al Saud and Al Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden.

MacLeod also spent 10 years with United Press International, as a correspondent in the Pittsburgh bureau from 1975-76, the Pennsylvania state capital bureau in Harrisburg from 1977-81 (bureau chief 1979-81), the London bureau in 1982 and the Beirut bureau in 1983-84. Among the stories he covered for UPI were the Three Mile Island nuclear power plant accident near Harrisburg in 1979 and the bombings of the U.S. embassy and Marine barracks in Beirut in 1983.

MacLeod has been a contributor to the New York Review of Books and with Thomas Sancton is the author of the international best-seller, Death of a Princess: The Investigation.

• This is the busy time of the semester for 1Ls. You are already started with the open memo (and if you aren’t, you’re probably wasting a lot of time feeling guilty that you aren’t started). You have a practice exam. You’ll be having supervisor presentations soon. Maybe you’ve got make-up classes happening.
Generally, you feel like the “time management loan shark” that gave you Fall Break has sent someone around to collect. It’s not actually as bad as that, of course. But, this is the first part of the semester that starts to remotely resemble the demands of practicing law—you are balancing many competing tasks all at once, with everyone expecting you to give their tasks priority.

You can get a handle on your time (and feel much more in control) if you get organized. I am glad to help with that. You can also benefit from the balance and relaxation that was working at the beginning of the year (and that some folks are unwisely letting go of now, leaving themselves feeling panicked and out of control). I can help with that. Stop by office hours and we’ll talk about how to work on all these things. No one needs to feel panicked about law school this month. It’s a lot of work, but we’ve very carefully organized it to be an amount you can all handle.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

- The Environmental Law Society Presents

  A Conversation about Clean Energy Policy

  Thursday, October 28
  12:15-1:15p.m.

  Saperston Student Lounge

  Professor Benjamin Ho, Assistant Professor of Economics at the Johnson School and former lead economist for energy and transportation for the White House Council of Economic Advisers, will discuss insights on how clean energy policy is made.

  The conversation will include research on what shapes attitudes toward climate change and green energy, as well as contracting issues in carbon offset markets. He will also discuss how behavioral economics informs environmental decisions. Lunch will be provided at the event. Co-sponsored by GPSAFC and the Energy Club and Open to the Graduate Community. Please contact Ben Tettlebaum (bwt32@cornell.edu) with questions.

  Following Your Passion: Working in Environmental Law

  Thursday, November 4
  4:00-5:00 p.m.

  Room G85 and Saperston Student Lounge (Reception)

  David Baron '77 (Earthjustice), Erika Anderson '08 (Anderson Law Firm, CEO at Renewable Exploration), Carrie Pollak '08 (Associate, Greenberg Traurig, LLP), Liz Leaderman '08 (Associate, Day Pitney, LLP). Join a discussion with four Cornell Law alumni working in environmental law: an important, growing, and fascinating practice area.

  Come learn about working at a public interest non-profit litigation powerhouse, starting your own private practice, working for the environment in government, and practicing in the private sector. In a candid discussion, these alumni will share insight about pursuing this career path: what courses and clinics to take while in law school, how to spend your summers, and what opportunities await after you graduate. A reception with refreshments in Saperston Lounge will follow the discussion. Co-sponsored by Career Services and the Public Service Office. Please contact Ben Tettlebaum (bwt32@cornell.edu) with questions.

- Native American Law Students Association and the Environmental Law Society

  Thursday, October 28
  4.30- 5.30 p.m.

  Room 279

  Federal Indian Law, Environmental Law, and the Non-Indian Alternative Dispute Model
Join Lee Scharf, Esq., for a discussion on the intersection of Indian law, environmental law and Alternative Dispute Resolution in the United States. Ms. Scharf worked for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for fifteen years, where she served as the agency's tribal mediation lead.

Among other projects, she is currently working with a watershed-based tribal nonprofit organization on the Wind River Indian Reservation to help the Northern Arapahoe identify land, water, and air pollution issues. Co-Sponsored by the Alternative Dispute Resolution Society, the Office of Public Service, the Native American Law Students Association and the Environmental Law Society. Please direct all questions to Erin Agee (eba26@cornell.edu)
