FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR
Spring 11
- Law School Registrar's Office Hours - The Registrar's Office is open to the community Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. - Noon and 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. The office is closed between Noon and 1:00 p.m. The telephone number is 255-7190. Our email address is: registrar@lawschool.cornell.edu

- Upperclass course changes - Students must add or drop limited enrollment courses by 2:00 p.m. Friday, January 28. Students may add or drop unlimited enrollment law courses until 4:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 1. Non-law courses must also be added or dropped by 4:00 p.m. on February 1. Please remember to notify the Law School Registrar if you add or drop a non-law course through the University Online AddDrop.

- Credit hour requirements - During the second and third years, JD program students may not register for fewer than 12 hours or more than 16 hours during any one term, or fewer than 26 hours in any one academic year. Students in the JD/LLM program will be allowed to take a maximum of 20 credits per semester during the second and third years. Exceptions to the credit requirements must be approved by the dean of students. Note that NO exceptions can be made to the 16 credit maximum for JD and the 20 credit maximum for the JD-LLM program students.

- University Registration is complete once tuition and other financial obligations have been met. Tuition statements and payment information were sent by the Office of the University Bursar in December and January. Please give special attention to the dates regarding tuition payment and finance charges. After the third week of classes you will lose access to university services and be charged a $350.00 late fee, in addition to finance charges. If you register after the sixth week of classes, you will be charged a $500 late fee, in addition to finance charges. Failure to register will impact financial aid, loan deferments and health benefits that rely on in-school status. This may also affect the ability to use certain services on campus such as your Cornell Card, Library Services and Gannett Health Services.

- Bursar's Office - If University Student Center indicates your registration is on hold, you must first stop by the Bursar's Office, 260 Day Hall to clear your student account by February 11, 2011, and then proceed to the Office of the University Registrar, B7 Day Hall.

- Student Transcripts - Official transcripts are available only at the University Registrar's Office in B7 Day Hall. Processing time varies please allow 7-10 days for processing. Internal (unofficial) transcripts are available at the Law School Registrar's office (written request required). The online unofficial transcript request form is available at the Registrar's site: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu in the Forms and Requests section. Please remember that we ask you to make this request 24 hours in advance of your need for the materials.

- Loan Deferment Certifications - Students who need to have loan deferments completed by the school need to submit them to the Registrar's Office, 160 Myron Taylor Hall, as quickly as possible to assure timely processing.

- Bar Registration - The rules of certain states (not New York) require notification of the intent to begin study of law or registration with the bar admission authorities when a person begins studying law. The student should obtain instructions from the proper authorities (usually the state board of bar examiners of the clerk of the court of highest jurisdiction) in the state in which the student intends to practice. The Registrar's Office has on hand bar information for interested students.

- Lost & Found - Lost items and articles are usually turned in to the Registrar's Office or to the Law Library.

- Book and Coat Lockers - Students who do not live in Hughes Hall have been assigned a book and coat locker. Most students will need to share a coat locker. Coat lockers assignments are available on the Registrar’s website (in the My Information section): http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu

- Mail Folders (“flexes”) - Remember to check your mail folder daily for notices and remove your mail regularly. Please do not use the folder to keep books or for storage; there is not enough space.

- Assignment Board - Assignments and notices are posted in the glass case as they are received by the Registrar's Office. Students should also check for assignments on the course Blackboard site at: http://blackboard.cornell.edu/

- Cornell Law Attendance Policy

Regular and punctual class attendance, beginning on the first day of the semester, is required of all students. Faculty members monitor attendance and may enforce the rule by reporting the student to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs; or by removing a student from the course or excluding a student from an exam (after reasonable written warning); or by another mechanism announced in the course syllabus.
prior to the end of add/drop. If a student is excluded from an exam, a grade of F is entered. Students who are ill or have another valid reason for missing class are encouraged to contact the instructor directly and are required to notify the Associate Dean for Student Affairs if more than three days are missed.

- Release of information - A reminder to all students. Students asking faculty members to write recommendations will need to complete a release form with the Law School Registrar's Office if the faculty member wishes to view the student's record. The form is available online at the Forms and Requests tab, Permission to Examine Student Record link.

- Religious Holidays and the Academic Calendar - The University policy concerning the academic calendar and religious holidays states, “In enacting the academic calendar, the University has scheduled classes, laboratories and examinations on religious holidays. It is the intent of the University that students who miss these activities because of religious observances be given adequate opportunity to make up the missed work.” A faculty member may request audio or videotaping of a class if he or she wishes. Any student who seeks an accommodation should approach his or her instructor. All requests for taping must be submitted on-line to the IT Department at least 2 business days in advance for classes. If you are requesting to videotape or record a professor’s lecture, you must obtain the professor’s permission prior to submitting an AV request. Students can find this request form online at the Registrar’s site under Forms and Requests or at: http://www.lawschool.cornell.edu/information-technology/upload/StuAV-2.pdf

  The Berger International Legal Studies Program invites you to a pizza luncheon. Come learn about our 2011 Paris Summer Institute.

  We will be having a pizza and soft drinks to go along with our brief, informal program. Several faculty members who teach in the Summer Institute, a couple of students who have gone in the past, as well as representatives of the Career Office and the Financial Aid Office, will be present to explain how study in Paris complements and enhances your Cornell education and how you can make it happen financially.

I hope you will take a few minutes to explore the Summer Institute’s website: http://www.lawschool.cornell.edu/international/study_abroad/paris_summer/index.cfm If you have any questions, please contact me. I am located in room 107 or you may e-mail me at lsb13@cornell.edu.

As a Cornell student, you may apply to the Summer Institute at any time. There is no deadline, but we advise students to apply as soon as they are certain that they plan to attend. In order to be admitted, all you must do is submit the online application, pay the $150 application fee and arrange to have the law school Registrar send me a statement that you are in good standing and eligible to continue your studies at Cornell.

FROM THE LAW LIBRARY
Applications for reserved carrels for the Spring Semester will be available at the circulation desk in the library and on the Cornell Law Library website www.lawschool.cornell.edu/library by January 24, 2011. The applications are due by January 28, 2011. Carrels will be assigned the next week. Second and third year JD students as well as LLM and JSD students are eligible. Please do not apply for a carrel if you are going to leave it unused for part of the semester. Many people want carrels who do not get them. If you had a carrel for the Fall semester 2010 you are less likely to get one for the Spring Semester. Thank you.

- Welcome Back. By now, you've gotten either your first set of grades or yet another set of grades. If you are looking at those and wondering what to do, I'm here to help (whether you are a 1L or a 2L or a 3L). It's never too late to improve your learning techniques. I'm glad to visit with you (no matter what year you are) in an individual appointment (drop-in during office hours or e-mail ahead for a designated time). Of course, I'm going to have some special programming for 1Ls.

In particular, 1Ls should attend a special, large-group session entitled “How to Hit a Moving Target: Improving Your Grades While Everyone Else is Trying to Do the Same Thing.” That’s going to happen on Tuesday, January 25, at 3:35 in room 290. You may or may not get a reminder e-mail on Tuesday morning about this.

Also, new this year for 1Ls, I have arranged with the law school for some guided study groups led by successful 2L and 3L students (i.e., in this instance, successful means they did quite well in 1L grades). These sessions will focus on Civ. Pro. and Contracts, because those are the continuing classes, but the skills covered in the small-group sessions will carry over to Property and Crim Law and, for that matter, your second and third years of law school. If you were unhappy with your grade in Civ. Pro. or Contracts, please e-mail me ASAP (and absolutely no later than Wednesday, January 26, at 5:00 p.m.) because we have only limited space in this program.

Finally, I will resume the Out of the Office Hours this semester (at least a little--it's not that cold). Let me know if you have things you'd like to do or suggestions for activities.
