FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR

Fall 2011
• Law School Registrar’s Office Hours - The Registrar’s Office is open to the community Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. - Noon and 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. The office is closed between Noon and 1:00 p.m. The telephone number is 255-7190. Our email address is: registrar@lawschool.cornell.edu

• Upperclass course changes - Students must add or drop limited enrollment courses by 11:00 a.m. Thursday, September 1. Students may add or drop unlimited enrollment law courses until 4:00 p.m., Friday, September 2. Non-law courses must also be added or dropped by 4:00 p.m. on September 2. Please remember to notify the Law School Registrar if you add or drop a non-law course through the University Online AddDrop.

• Credit hour requirements - During the second and third years, JD program students may not register for fewer than 12 hours or more than 16 hours during any one term, or fewer than 26 hours in any one academic year. Students in the JD/LLM program will be allowed to take a maximum of 20 credits per semester during the second and third years. Exceptions to the credit requirements must be approved by the Dean of Students. Note that NO exceptions can be made to the 16 credit maximum for JD and the 20 credit maximum for the JD-LLM program students.

- University Registration is complete once tuition and other financial obligations have been met. Tuition statements and payment information were sent by the Office of the University Bursar in July and August. Please give special attention to the dates regarding tuition payment and finance charges. After the third week of classes you will lose access to university services and be charged a $350.00 late fee, in addition to finance charges. If you register after the sixth week of classes, you will be charged a $500 late fee, in addition to finance charges. Failure to register will impact financial aid, loan deferments and health benefits that rely on in-school status. This may also affect the ability to use certain services on campus such as your Cornell Card, Library Services and Gannett Health Services.

- Bursar's Office - If University Student Center indicates your registration is on hold, you must first stop by the Bursar's Office, 260 Day Hall to clear your student account by September 16, 2011, and then proceed to the Office of the University Registrar, B7 Day Hall.

- Student Transcripts - Official transcripts are available only at the University Registrar's Office in B7 Day Hall. Processing time varies please allow 7-10 days for processing. Internal (unofficial) transcripts are available at the Law School Registrar's office (written request required). The online unofficial transcript request form is available at the Registrar's site: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu in the Forms and Requests section. Please remember that we ask you to make this request 24 hours in advance of your need for the materials.

- Loan Deferment Certifications - Students who need to have loan deferments completed by the school need to submit them to the Registrar's Office, 160 Myron Taylor Hall, as quickly as possible to assure timely processing.

- Bar Registration - The rules of certain states (not New York) require notification of the intent to begin study of law or registration with the bar admission authorities when a person begins studying law. The student should obtain instructions from the proper authorities (usually the state board of bar examiners of the clerk of the court of highest jurisdiction) in the state in which the student intends to practice. The Registrar's Office has on hand bar information for interested students.

- Lost & Found - Lost items and articles are usually turned in to the Registrar's Office or to the Law Library.

- Book and Coat Lockers - Students who do not live in Hughes Hall have been assigned a book and coat locker. Most students will need to share a coat locker. Coat lockers assignments are available on the Registrar’s website (in the My Information section): http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu

- Mail Folders ("flexes") - Remember to check your mail folder daily for notices and remove your mail regularly. Please do not use the folder to keep books or for storage; there is not enough space.

- Assignment Board - Assignments and notices are posted in the glass case as they are received by the Registrar's Office. Students should also check for assignments on the course Blackboard site at: http://blackboard.cornell.edu

- Release of information - A reminder to all students. Students asking faculty members to write recommendations will need to complete a release form with the Law School Registrar's Office if the faculty member wishes to view the student's record. The form is available online at the Forms and Requests tab, at the Permission to Examine Student Record (Release of Information) link.
Religious Holidays and the Academic Calendar - The University policy concerning the academic calendar and religious holidays states, “In enacting the academic calendar, the University has scheduled classes, laboratories and examinations on religious holidays. It is the intent of the University that students who miss these activities because of religious observances be given adequate opportunity to make up the missed work.” A faculty member may request audio or videotaping of a class if he or she wishes. Any student who seeks an accommodation should approach his or her instructor. All requests for taping must be submitted on-line to the IT Department at least 2 business days in advance for classes. If you are requesting to videotape or record a professor’s lecture, you must obtain the professor’s permission prior to submitting an AV request. Students can find this request form online at the Registrar’s site under Forms and Requests or at:

from an exam (after reasonable written warning); or by another mechanism announced in the course syllabus prior to the end of add/drop. If a student is excluded from an exam, a grade of F is entered. Students who are ill or have another valid reason for missing class are encouraged to contact the instructor directly and are required to notify the Associate Dean for Student Affairs if more than three days are missed.

• Welcome (or Welcome Back) to Cornell Law School. This is the start of a great year. I’m already planning many large-group and small-group activities to support your learning at Cornell. Most immediately, I’m scheduling plenty of office hours the week of August 29 so that 1Ls (by section) or 2 and 3Ls (by group) can stop by to check about learning and study strategies. You folks who have been here just under a week may want to ask some questions to fill in the gaps that you might have missed during orientation. You folks who are back for the second or third time may want to stop by for some advice on fine-tuning (or completely revamping) your study strategies to improve on last year’s successes. I’m here to help.

I’ll also be doing “Out of the Office” Hours this year. I know the 1Ls who participated last year enjoyed it a lot. We’ll have some opportunities that are open to everyone, and others that are 1L only. This week, the event is open to all law students. Specifically, it’s an outing to the Johnson Art Museum. There is an event open to grad students only on Thursday, September 1, starting at 4:00 p.m. There will be free food, a gallery talk, and even a tasting of local wines (go easy—it’s a school night). Last year, this was one of the best events we had (free food and live music go pretty far). I’ll lead the walk from the Atrium leaving at about 3:30 p.m. It should be an outstanding relaxing event for a Thursday afternoon.

GROUP STUDY SPACE IN THE LAW SCHOOL
When you want to get together with a group of students to study together, you can use informal spaces, such as the Atrium and the Saperston Student Lounge. Or more formally, you can use reserve rooms G80, G81, 273, 387, 389, and the Library’s Casual Reading Room (these six rooms are referred to collectively as the “Study Rooms”).

Same-day reservations for Study Rooms can be made in the afternoon and/or evening, on a sign-out sheet available at the Circulation Desk in the Library Reading Room. Reservations shall be made in person at Noon or thereafter – not earlier. Only same-day reservations will be accepted – no advance reservations permitted.

Evening reservations must be made prior to the last sign-up time for the day. In cases in which a room reservation extends beyond 7:30 p.m. Sunday through Thursday, or beyond 4:30 p.m. on Friday or Saturday, the student making the reservation will be responsible for securing the room in question (closing windows and locking doors) at the end of use. Evening reservations that begin after 7:30 p.m. (Sunday-Thursday) or 4:30 p.m. (Friday & Saturday) must be reserved as of those times to insure the room remains open for their use. Students making such reservation will be responsible for the room starting at 7:30 or 4:30, respectively. If no reservation is made for a room to be used after hours, the library staff will lock it at 7:30 or 4:30.

During study periods, Study Rooms will be available on a first-come, first-served basis 24 hours a day, with no reservation procedure.
