Office Hours for Students
I will be holding office hours for students on Tuesday afternoons between 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. Students wishing to see me may either sign up in advance with Liz Flint in room 263, by email (es232@cornell.edu) or by phone (607-255-3539).

FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR

Fall 2011

• Schedule Verification and S/U Grade Election form - You will receive an individual schedule verification and S/U grade election in your student mail folder. They must be completed and returned by 4:00 p.m. Thursday, September 15, 2011.

• S/U Grading Option - Each J.D. student may elect to take up to two upperclass courses at Cornell Law School on an S/U basis. At the close of Add-Drop students will be issued their schedule and grade option verification form. S/U grade elections, if made, shall be irrevocable. Students may not make this election in courses that they use to satisfy the Law School’s upperclass writing requirement. In addition, instructors may designate specific courses that they teach as not eligible for the S/U grade election. Check individual course descriptions in the on-line Fall 2011 Course Description memo at the Course Registration and Faculty Information section: https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/Registrar_Course_Descriptions.pdf for more information.

• Cornell Law Attendance Policy Regular and punctual class attendance, beginning on the first day of the semester, is required of all students. Faculty members monitor attendance and may enforce the rule by reporting the student to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs; or by removing a student from the course or excluding a student from an exam (after reasonable written warning); or by another mechanism announced in the course syllabus prior to the end of add/drop. If a student is excluded from an exam, a grade of F is entered. Students who are ill or have another valid reason for missing class are encouraged to contact the instructor directly and are required to notify the Associate Dean for Student Affairs if more than three days are missed.

• University Registration is complete once tuition and other financial obligations have been met. Tuition statements and payment information were sent by the Office of the University Bursar in July and August.
Please give special attention to the dates regarding tuition payment and finance charges. After the third week of classes you will lose access to university services and be charged a $350.00 late fee, in addition to finance charges. If you register after the sixth week of classes, you will be charged a $500 late fee, in addition to finance charges. Failure to register will impact financial aid, loan deferments and health benefits that rely on in-school status. This may also affect the ability to use certain services on campus such as your Cornell Card, Library Services and Gannett Health Services.

- Bursar's Office - If University Student Center indicates your registration is on hold, you must first stop by the Bursar's Office, 260 Day Hall to clear your student account by September 16, 2011, and then proceed to the Office of the University Registrar, B7 Day Hall.

- Information from the University’s Bursar's Office - A refund schedule for withdrawals and leaves of absence for the Fall 2011 semester follows:

- Student Transcripts
  - Internal/Unofficial Transcript
    For information on how to request unofficial transcripts from the Law School Registrar’s Office, please use the link on the Law School Registrar’s site (http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu) at the Forms and Requests section, Unofficial Transcripts (http://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/TranscriptRequestText.cfm) Please remember that we ask you to make this request 24 hours in advance of your need for the materials.

- Official transcripts come from the Office of the University Registrar (B07 Day Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853]. Official transcripts do not include gpa. To receive your gpa you must submit a request for an internal transcript following the procedure described on the Registrar’s website.

  The Office of the University Registrar provides official grade transcripts bearing the Cornell University seal and the signature of the University Registrar. The University maintains a single transcript for all students reflecting all courses taken at Cornell, including summer, extramural, undergraduate and graduate courses. For information on ordering Official Transcripts, please go to the University Registrar’s Office website (http://registrar.sas.cornell.edu/index.html), Transcripts link: (http://transcript.cornell.edu/)

- Loan Deferment Certifications - Students who need to have loan deferments completed by the school need to submit them to the Registrar's Office, 160 Myron Taylor Hall, as quickly as possible to assure timely processing.

- Bar Registration - The rules of certain states (not New York) require notification of the intent to begin study of law or registration with the bar admission authorities when a person begins studying law. The student should obtain instructions from the proper authorities (usually the state board of bar examiners of the clerk of the court of highest jurisdiction) in the state in which the student intends to practice. The Registrar's Office has on hand bar information for interested students.
• Mail Folders ("flexes") - Remember to check your mail folder daily for notices and remove your mail regularly. Please do not use the folder to keep books or for storage; there is not enough space.

• Assignment Board - Assignments and notices are posted in the glass case as they are received by the Registrar's Office. Students should also check for assignments on the course Blackboard site at: http://blackboard.cornell.edu/

• Release of information - A reminder to all students. Students asking faculty members to write recommendations will need to complete a release form with the Law School Registrar's Office if the faculty member wishes to view the student's record. The form is available online at the Forms and Requests tab, at the Permission to Examine Student Record (Release of Information) link.

• Religious Holidays and the Academic Calendar - The University policy concerning the academic calendar and religious holidays states, “In enacting the academic calendar, the University has scheduled classes, laboratories and examinations on religious holidays. It is the intent of the University that students who miss these activities because of religious observances be given adequate opportunity to make up the missed work.” A faculty member may request audio or videotaping of a class if he or she wishes. Any student who seeks an accommodation should approach his or her instructor. All requests for taping must be submitted on-line to the IT Department at least 2 business days in advance for classes. If you are requesting to videotape or record a professor’s lecture, you must obtain the professor’s permission prior to submitting an AV request. Students can find this request form online at the Registrar’s site under Forms and Requests or at: http://www.lawschool.cornell.edu/information-technology/upload/StuAV-2.pdf

FROM PAT HALSTEAD, CERTIFICATION COORDINATOR
Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE)
The MPRE is administered three times per year and is required for admission to the bar of all but four U.S. jurisdictions. Passing scores, which are established by each jurisdiction, currently vary between 75-86. Applicants are advised to contact the jurisdiction directly for the most current information regarding passing scores, rules, and policies. Websites for many of the jurisdictions can be accessed via the National Conference of Bar Examiners website using the following address: www.ncbex.org/bar-admissions/offices. Paper applications are available in the Law School Registrar's Office.
The November 2011 test date and postmark deadlines
Absolutely no applications will be accepted after the late application receipt deadline.

The November test dates fall on Saturday morning. An applicant whose religious beliefs preclude him or her from taking the examination on one of these dates may apply to take the MPRE on Sunday, March 6, 2011, or Sunday, November 6, 2011. Requests to take the exam on Sunday must be in writing and must include a letter from the applicant’s cleric confirming the applicant’s affiliation with a recognized religious entity that observes its Sabbath throughout the year on Saturday. This documentation must be received by the late receipt deadline and must be sent with a copy of the online confirmation received after submission of an online application or with a completed paper application. The applicant will be notified whether or not the request is granted.

Applicants may register for the MPRE online or by mail. Read the MPRE 2011 Information booklet carefully, as applicants are responsible for all information contained in it. The MPRE Information Booklet may be downloaded from either of these websites: www.act.org/mpre or www.ncbex.org/multistate-tests/mpre.

Online applications must be received by 11:59 p.m. central time on the published deadline date. Paper applications must be received in the MPRE Application Department in Iowa City, Iowa, by 5:00 p.m. central time.

The MPRE is based on the law governing the conduct of lawyers, including the disciplinary rules of professional conduct currently articulated in the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct and the ABA Code of Judicial Conduct, and controlling constitutional decisions and generally accepted principles established in leading federal and state cases and in procedural and evidentiary rules.

Applicants requesting accommodations due to a disability must mail all the supporting documentation with a copy of the online confirmation received after submission of an online application or with a completed paper application (see Appendix B: Accommodations for Applicant’s with Disabilities in the MPRE 2011 Information Booklet).

- By now, you are starting to get in the swing of the semester. You may find yourself thinking, “I’ve got to get back to the gym” or “Maybe when things settle down, I’ll find time to go to the museum.” The problem is, it doesn’t get easier after this. The schedule you are building now becomes the habit you are forming for the rest of the semester (or year or three years). You are going to have a lot of work, and that level of work will increase as your skills increase. But, there is never so much work that you can’t build in an hour break for yourself. Any competent attorney should be able to schedule in an hour of relaxation. Though some chose not to, it doesn’t increase their productivity. And, if you find that you are not feeling capable of scheduling that in, not because you don’t want to, but because you feel like you can’t, then you are likely overwhelming yourself already. Now is a good time to look at that and decide how you want to spend the rest of your life—overwhelmed or in control. Please feel free to stop by during drop-in hours or by appointment so we can talk about those things. I like to help.

You may also be interested to learn that we have “Mid-Day Music” here at Cornell usually on Wednesdays at 12:30. It alternates between Lincoln Hall (not very far away, but past the bookstore) and Anabel Taylor Hall (which is REALLY close to here—it touches, in fact). This week, on Wednesday, September 7, the music is at Anabel Taylor and is “Midday Music for Organ: guest artist Mariko Morita performs selections from J. S. Bach’s Clavierübung III.” I’ll lead an “Out of the Office” Hours walk from the Atrium at 12:20 to Anabel for this very short concert. It’s still possible to get back from that music to class later in the day, and it’s an excellent relaxation to hear some live music. The full schedule for the semester is on-line at: http://music.cornell.edu/calendar/midday-music/.
