FRIDAY, JANUARY 27
FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR

Spring 2012

• Law School Registrar's Office Hours - The Registrar's Office is open to the community Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. - Noon and 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. The office is closed between Noon and 1:00 p.m. The telephone number is 255-7190. Our email address is: registrar@lawschool.cornell.edu

• Upperclass course changes - Students must add or drop limited enrollment courses by 10:00 a.m. Monday, January 30. Students may add or drop unlimited enrollment law courses until 4:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 31. Non-law courses must also be added or dropped by 4:00 p.m. on January 31. Please remember to notify the Law School Registrar if you add or drop a non-law course through the University Online AddDrop.

• Credit hour requirements - During the second and third years, JD program students may not register for fewer than 12 hours or more than 16 hours during any one term, or fewer than 26 hours in any one academic year. Students in the JD/LLM program will be allowed to take a maximum of 20 credits per semester during the second and third years. Exceptions to the credit requirements must be approved by the Dean of Students. Note that NO exceptions can be made to the 16 credit maximum for JD and the 20 credit maximum for the JD-LLM program students.

• University Registration is complete once tuition and other financial obligations have been met. Please give special attention to the dates regarding tuition payment and finance charges. After the third week of classes you will lose access to university services and be charged a $350.00 late fee, in addition to finance charges. If you register after the sixth week of classes, you will be charged a $500 late fee, in addition to finance charges. Failure to register will impact financial aid, loan deferments and health benefits that rely on in-school status. This may also affect the ability to use certain services on campus such as your Cornell Card, Library Services and Gannett Health Services.

• Bursar's Office - If the University Student Center indicates your registration is on hold, you must first stop by the Bursar's Office, 260 Day Hall to clear your student account by February 10, 2012, and then proceed to the Office of the University Registrar, B7 Day Hall.

• Student Transcripts - Official transcripts are available only at the University Registrar's Office in B7 Day Hall. Internal (unofficial) transcripts are available at the Law School Registrar's office (written request required). The online unofficial transcript request form is available at the Registrar’s site: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu in the Forms and Requests section. Please remember that we ask you to make this request 24 hours in advance of your need for the materials.

• Loan Deferment Certifications - Students who need to have loan deferments completed by the school need to submit them to the Registrar's Office, 160 Myron Taylor Hall, as quickly as possible to assure timely processing.

• Bar Registration - The rules of certain states (not New York) require notification of the intent to begin study of law or registration with the bar admission authorities when a person begins studying law. The student should obtain instructions from the proper authorities (usually the state board of bar examiners of the clerk of the court of highest jurisdiction) in the state in which the student intends to practice. The Registrar's Office has on hand bar information for interested students.

• Lost & Found - Lost items and articles are usually turned in to the Registrar's Office or to the Law Library.
• Book and Coat Lockers - Students who do not live in Hughes Hall have been assigned a book and coat locker. Most students will need to share a coat locker. Coat lockers assignments are available on the Registrar’s website (in the My Information section): http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu

• Mail Folders (“flexes”) - Remember to check your mail folder daily for notices and remove your mail regularly. Please do not use the folder to keep books or for storage; there is not enough space.

• Assignment Board - Assignments and notices are posted in the glass case as they are received by the Registrar's Office. Students should also check for assignments on the course Blackboard site at: http://blackboard.cornell.edu/

• Release of information - A reminder to all students. Students asking faculty members to write recommendations will need to complete a release form with the Law School Registrar's Office if the faculty member wishes to view the student's record. The form is available online at the Forms and Requests tab, at the Permission to Examine Student Record (Release of Information) link.

• Religious Holidays and the Academic Calendar - The University policy concerning the academic calendar and religious holidays states, “In enacting the academic calendar, the University has scheduled classes, laboratories and examinations on religious holidays. It is the intent of the University that students who miss these activities because of religious observances be given adequate opportunity to make up the missed work.” A faculty member may request audio or videotaping of a class if he or she wishes. Any student who seeks an accommodation should approach his or her instructor. All requests for taping must be submitted on-line to the IT Department at least 2 business days in advance for classes. If you are requesting to videotape or record a professor’s lecture, you must obtain the professor’s permission prior to submitting an AV request. Students can find this request form online at the Registrar’s site under Forms and Requests or at: http://www.lawschool.cornell.edu/information-technology/upload/StuAV-2.pdf

• Emergency Phone Number
  - On-Campus or Off-Campus: call 911 for all safety, fire, medical, or other life threatening emergencies

• Non-Emergency Phone Numbers On-Campus
  - Campus Police: 255-1111
  - Campus Police Administration: 255-1113
  - Gannett Health Center: 255-5155
  - Environmental Health & Safety: 255-8200

• Non-Emergency Phone Numbers Off-Campus
  - Ithaca Police: 272-3245 (in the City of Ithaca)
  - Cayuga Heights Police: 257-1011 (in the Village of Cayuga Heights)
  - Tompkins County Sheriff 272-2444 (if not in the City of Ithaca or Cayuga Heights)
  - New York State Police: 273-4671
  - Suicide & Crisis Counseling Services: 272-1616
  - Tompkins County Rape/Abuse Hotline: 277-5000

FROM ANNE LUKINGBEAL, ASSOCIATE DEAN AND DEAN OF STUDENTS

Welcome Back!

• Law School Events Calendar: Reminder to students who are planning an event at the Law School or who just what to know what is going on in Myron Taylor Hall during a particular week: you can check the Law School calendar on the Law School homepage at www.lawschool.cornell.edu.

FROM JOHN DE ROSA, ASSISTANT DEAN FOR STUDENT AND CAREER SERVICES AND LYNDSEY BULLOCK, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF CAREER SERVICES

All Students
• Welcome back, and Happy New Year! I am delighted to announce two major staffing developments in the Career Services Office.

First, Tiffany Sepulveda, a member of the Cornell Law School Class of 2009, will be joining us at the beginning of February as our new Director of Career Services. Tiffany comes to us from Shearman & Sterling in New York, where she has been working as an associate in the Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation area. Special thanks to Rachel Sparks Bradley ’12, Brian Hogue ’12 and Sarah Breslow ’13 for serving as the student representatives on our search committee!

Second, Lyndsey Bullock, who had been serving as our Career Services Associate since June of 2010, has been named our Assistant Director of Career Services. Please join us in congratulating Lyndsey for a well-deserved promotion!

1L Students
• Symplicity Reminder
You can log on to Symplicity at https://law-cornell-csm.symplicity.com/students/. Your username is your netID (e.g., ldb27). You were sent your password via email last November. If you no longer have that email, you can obtain your password by clicking “Forgot Password” on the login screen. Once you are logged in, you can change your password by clicking on the “Profile” button at the top of the screen. To view job postings, click the “Jobs” button at the top of the screen.

• Spring 2012 Law Firm Receptions
During the course of this semester there will be a number of law firm receptions taking place in and around the law school. Law firms host receptions in order to introduce you to their attorneys, practice areas, and summer program in advance of 2L fall recruiting. The event is open for you to mingle with the attorneys, ask any questions you may have, and enjoy some food and drinks. You will receive more information in the next few weeks and please watch your email for additional law firm reception announcements and invitations throughout the semester.

WRITING COMPETITIONS AND CALL FOR PAPERS

- The Cambridge Journal of International and Comparative Law invites abstract submissions for consideration for participation in its Conference, to be held in May 2012 in Cambridge, England. The Conference will provide early career researchers with an opportunity to engage in academic debate with established academics and legal professionals over the course of two days at the prestigious Lauterpacht Centre for International Law and the Faculty of Law at the University of Cambridge. The journal invites submissions from a wide range of disciplines, including international, comparative and EU law, criminology, politics and philosophy. For information please visit: http://www.cjicl.co.uk/conference.

- The Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law at American University Washington College of Law and the American Society of International Law's Lieber Society seek submissions of papers for the second annual International Humanitarian Law Student Writing Competition on the topic of international humanitarian law. Papers must be submitted by email. Deadline for submission is February 15, 2012 by 12:00 Noon, EST. Complete competition details are available at: http://www.wcl.american.edu/humright/center/student_ihl_writing_competition.cfm

- The Levit Essay Contest is sponsored by the American Bar Association’s Standing Committee on Lawyers’ Professional Liability. Submissions must be postmarked by February 17, 2012. Complete contest information, contest hypothetical and submission guidelines are available at: http://bit.ly/Levit2012

- The Criminal Law Section of the State Bar of California is pleased to announce its Fourth Annual Competition for Student Papers in Criminal Law and/or Criminal Procedure. To be eligible for consideration, the paper must be written solely by a student enrolled in law school at the time the author submits a paper to this Competition. The paper must pertain to criminal law and/or to criminal procedure, with a particular focus on contemporary issues of concern in the State of California. Deadline for submissions is February 29, 2012. For complete information on the submission process please visit: http://criminallaw.calbar.ca.gov/Portals/14/documents/2012_criminal-law_student-competition.pdf
• The 2011-12 Trandafir International Business Writing Competition is open to all graduate and law students. The winning student will receive a cash prize of $2,000 and the winning submission will be published in an upcoming edition of the law journal, Transnational Law & Contemporary Problems. Submissions may address any topic of contemporary international business or economic concern with a legal nexus. Mail entries must be postmarked by March 1, 2012. Complete competition rules are available at the journal’s website: http://www.uiowa.edu/~tlcp/trandafir_competition.html

• The Editorial Board of the University College Dublin (UCD) Law Review seeks academic legal articles from both undergraduate/postgraduate students, recent graduates and practitioners. Ideal submissions are between 5,000 and 10,000 words in length, and should be submitted electronically. We publish articles from a wide variety of legal fields, and are always interested in submissions that represent an original perspective, or discuss innovative occurrences. The deadline for submission to the Twelfth Volume of the Review is March 30 2012. For information visit the website: http://www.ucdlawreview.org/

• The 2012 Gellhorn-Sargentich Law Student Essay Competition is open to currently enrolled students of ABA accredited law schools who are also members of the ABA Section of Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice. The paper may discuss any topic relating to administrative law. Only one essay may be submitted per entrant. Entries must be received by 7:00 p.m. Eastern time on April 1, 2012. Competition guidelines are available at http://www.americanbar.org/groups/administrative_law/initiatives_awards/gellhorn_sargentich_law_student_essay_competition.html

• The Howard C. Schwab Memorial annual essay contest presented by the ABA Section of Family Law is held annually to encourage interest in the field of family law. Applicants may submit an essay on any aspect of family law and entrants are encouraged to write on subjects of national interest. However, if the law in one state reflects a significant development or trend, that too could be an appropriate subject for an entry. Information about the Schwab Memorial Essay Contest can be found at www.ambar.org/schwab. The deadline for entries is May 4, 2012. Students must apply for an entry number by April 27.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE
• Professor Blume is accepting applications for a research assistants for the spring semester. Interested students should email a CV to him at jb94@cornell.edu

• Professor Frakes is interested in hiring one or two research assistants for the remainder of the academic year to work on various empirical health law and law and economics projects. If you would like to apply, please send a resume to Professor Frakes (mdf96@cornell.edu)

• Professor Whitehead seeks a research assistant for the spring of 2012 to assist him in work on various corporate law projects. No prior experience is necessary. If you are interested, please send a resume (including law school GPA) to Professor Whitehead (ckw26@cornell.edu). Please also indicate how many hours a week you are available.

• Professor Yale-Loehr needs some research assistants this summer to help update his immigration law treatise. Prior exposure to immigration law is helpful but not required. Pay is at the standard law school rate. This is an excellent job for a bright 1L. If interested, please email a transcript, resume and writing sample to Professor Yale-Loehr at SWY1@cornell.edu. Please also indicate your dates of availability. The job is full-time, so students interested in attending the Paris or other summer law programs need not apply
The Clarke Program in East Asian Law and Culture seeks to hire an editor for this spring to help with the maintenance of its online forums at http://meridian-180.org. The main responsibility will be to edit the English version of our participants' comments and of our publicity and outreach materials. The workload should remain modest (5 to 10 hours/week), but because these will be ongoing conversations, the ability to work every day to translate new content is critical. Familiarity with the vocabulary of law, economics and/or social sciences, is considered a plus but not an absolute requirement. All work will be done online via e-mail, although participation in 1 hour team meetings every week is required as well. Appointment would be for the rest of the Spring semester, with the possibility of an extension during the summer. If you would like to apply, please send a resume to Guillaume Ratel (gr37@cornell.edu).

The Law Library is looking for two 2nd or 3rd year law students to work as digital repository assistants. The digital repository assistants are responsible for uploading articles into the Law Library’s digital repository, Scholarship@Cornell Law (http://scholarship.law.cornell.edu/), and providing basic descriptive and subject-related metadata to enhance discoverability of the articles in the repository. This position requires sustained, concentrated focus and close attention to detail. Each assistant will work five hours a week, on weekdays between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Please send a resume to Jean Pajerek, Assistant Director for Information Management at: jmp8@cornell.edu.

ABA LAW STUDENT DIVISION OPPORTUNITIES

Join the ABA Law Student Division 2012-2013 Leadership Team

The ABA Law Student Division has numerous leadership positions available either by election or appointment. Among the many opportunities and benefits, ABA Law Student Division leadership will provide you with:

The opportunity to work with law student leaders across the country, including SBA Presidents, ABA Representatives, national law student organization leaders, as well as licensed attorneys and judges;

The opportunity to participate in roundtables, debates, and discussions addressing law student issues and concerns;

The ability to foster your leadership, diplomacy, and project management skills; and

The opportunity to create policy and present legal education issues that affect law students regionally and nationally.

Past leaders have stated that the professional, educational, and personal rewards they gained from their experience as an ABA Law Student Division leader were invaluable. If you enjoy a good challenge and are ready to roll up your sleeves, enhance your leadership experience, and work toward improving the legal education experience of your fellow classmates, then we strongly encourage you to submit your nomination or application for one of the leadership positions outlined below. All candidates must be ABA Law Student Division members in good standing (dues paid in full).

Please visit http://ambar.org/lsdleadership for the eligibility requirements, the nomination/application forms, deadlines, and mailing instructions. Nominations must be signed by your dean and postmarked by the deadline date indicated. If you are interested in being nominated for any of the positions, please contact Anne Lukingbeal, Dean of Students, by February 1, 2012.
