Office Hours for Students
I will be holding office hours for students on Tuesday afternoons between 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.
Students wishing to see me may either sign up in advance with Liz Flint in room 263, by email (es232@cornell.edu) or by phone (607-255-3539).

FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR

Spring 12
- Upperclass course changes - Students must add or drop limited enrollment courses by 10:00 a.m. Monday, January 30. Students may add or drop unlimited enrollment law courses until 4:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 31. Non-law courses must also be added or dropped by 4:00 p.m. on January 31. Please remember to notify the Law School Registrar if you add or drop a non-law course through the University Online AddDrop.

- Credit hour requirements - During the second and third years, JD program students may not register for fewer than 12 hours or more than 16 hours during any one term, or fewer than 26 hours in any one academic year. Students in the JD/LLM program will be allowed to take a maximum of 20 credits per semester during the second and third years. Exceptions to the credit requirements must be approved by the Dean of Students. Note that NO exceptions can be made to the 16 credit maximum for JD and the 20 credit maximum for the JD-LLM program students.

Summary of requirements for the JD degree
All students must satisfy three specific upper-class course requirements:
- A course which satisfies the skills requirement
- A course which satisfies a writing requirement [a writing course designated as a skills course might not satisfy both the writing and skills requirements in which case a student must notify the registrar which requirement they will use the courses to satisfy.]
- A course dealing with issues of professional responsibility.

A student may take no more than 18 credits outside of regularly scheduled law school classes
- Students may take no more than 18 credits outside of regularly scheduled law school classes. These 18 credits include full-term externships, part-time externships, directed readings, supervised writings, supervised teaching (including Lawyering Honors Fellows), courses taught in other university divisions, and clinics taught by instructors whose primary professional employment is not within the Law School. The course registration material identifies the courses that are subject to the 18-credit maximum at this link:
  https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/CurrRecommendations_and_DegreeRequirements.pdf

In addition, a student electing a course outside the Law School for credit or otherwise must also register for at least 9 credit hours in the Law School each term. Regardless of the number of courses elected outside the Law School, a student must earn 72, of the required 84, semester credit hours in professional law subjects. Here no exceptions are allowable.

JD/MBA, JD with Specialization in International Legal Affairs, Three-Year JD/LLM Degree, JD/French Master En Droit, JD/M.LL.P, JD/Master, and other program candidates must complete the JD requirements in addition to additional program requirements. Please consult individual program requirements or contact the registrar for assistance.
• JD Students Only - S/U Grading Option Verification Form. Classes of 2012 and 2013. Students must return their Grading Option Verification form for Spring 2012 course enrollment to the Law School Registrar’s Office no later than 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 14, 2012.

• Spring 12 Final Examinations - Students who have exam conflicts are reminded to notify the Law School Registrar's Office, in writing, of the conflict and should note which exam they wish rescheduled. The online Deferral Request link will be available the week of February 6 at the Registrar’s website: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu. The request must be made by 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 11, 2012. The exam schedule is available at the Registrar’s website at: https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/Spring_Exam_Schedule.pdf

• University Registration is complete once tuition and other financial obligations have been met. Please give special attention to the dates regarding tuition payment and finance charges. After the third week of classes you will lose access to university services and be charged a $350.00 late fee, in addition to finance charges. If you register after the sixth week of classes, you will be charged a $500 late fee, in addition to finance charges. Failure to register will impact financial aid, loan deferments and health benefits that rely on in-school status. This may also affect the ability to use certain services on campus such as your Cornell Card, Library Services and Gannett Health Services.

• Bursar's Office - If the University Student Center indicates your registration is on hold, you must first stop by the Bursar's Office, 260 Day Hall to clear your student account by February 10, 2012, and then proceed to the Office of the University Registrar, B7 Day Hall.

• Student Transcripts - Official transcripts are available only at the University Registrar's Office in B7 Day Hall. Internal (unofficial) transcripts are available at the Law School Registrar's office (written request required). The online unofficial transcript request form is available at the Registrar’s site: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu in the Forms and Requests section. Please remember that we ask you to make this request 24 hours in advance of your need for the materials.

• Buying textbooks - Please keep in mind that e-texts may not be used during exams. All permitted exam materials must be in hard copy.

• Summer School Study - Students may petition the faculty for permission to take courses in law summer school programs of ABA-approved law schools and, upon their successful completion, to receive credit toward the Cornell J.D. degree. Such petitions are considered on an individual basis, and in no case is credit in excess of six hours granted for all such summer school law study. For timely consideration of the petition, interested students should submit their petitions to the Law School Registrar's Office (addressed to Dean Lukingbeal) prior to April 1. Petition forms are available in the Law School Registrar’s Office and online at the Registrar’s site: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu at the Forms and Requests tab/Summer/Winter Intersession Course Credit Request.

• Local Addresses - Any student who has changed their local address will need to change the address with the Law School at: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu as well as with the University using the Student Center.

• Lost & Found - Lost items and articles are usually turned in to the Registrar's Office or to the Law Library.

• Mail Folders (flexes) - Remember to check your mail folder daily for notices and remove your mail regularly. Please do not use the folder to keep books or for storage; there is not enough space.
• Cornell Law Attendance Policy
  Regular and punctual class attendance, beginning on the first day of the semester, is required of all students. Faculty members monitor attendance and may enforce the rule by reporting the student to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs; or by removing a student from the course or excluding a student from an exam (after reasonable written warning); or by another mechanism announced in the course syllabus prior to the end of add/drop. If a student is excluded from an exam, a grade of F is entered. Students who are ill or have another valid reason for missing class are encouraged to contact the instructor directly and are required to notify the Associate Dean for Student Affairs if more than three days are missed.

• Absences - A student who must be absent from class for a period of three or more days should contact Associate Dean for Student Affairs Anne Lukingbeal and discuss the reasons for the absence.

FROM PAT HALSTEAD, CERTIFICATION COORDINATOR

• Registration with Bar Authorities
  Deadlines for bar examination applications may be approaching. The rules of certain states (not New York) require either notifying the bar admission authorities of intent to begin the study of law or registering with the authorities when law studies begin. Students should obtain instructions from the proper source (usually the state board of bar examiners or the clerk of the court of highest jurisdiction) in the state in which they intend to practice. Failure to comply with the instructions may substantially delay admission to the bar. For current bar requirements, applicants should consult the Official American Bar Association Guide to Approved Law Schools, published annually by the American Bar Association. This book is on reserve in the Law School library.

• Bar Applications Requiring Fingerprinting
  Not all State Bar Applications require fingerprinting. Fingerprinting is available on campus at the Public Safety Office, G-2 Barton Hall, 24 hours a day. You will need to take the fingerprint card with you, and two forms of picture ID.

• Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE)
  The Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE) is administered by ACT on behalf of the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The MPRE is a 60-question, two-hour-and-five-minute, multiple-choice examination administered three times per year at established test centers across the country.

The MPRE is required for admission to the bars of all but four U.S. jurisdictions. A list of jurisdictions currently using the MPRE is available by clicking on Which jurisdictions require the MPRE? or at http://www.ncbex.org/multistate-tests/mpre/which-jurisdictions-administer-the-mpre. Passing scores are established by each jurisdiction. Since the MPRE requirements vary from one jurisdiction to another, examinees are advised to contact the jurisdictions directly for the most current information regarding passing scores, rules, and policies. Contact information for jurisdictions can be found on the Bar Admission Services page at http://www.ncbex.org/bar-admissions.

The 2012 test dates and postmark deadlines are:
Absolutely no applications will be accepted after the late application receipt deadline.

The March and November test dates fall on Saturday morning. An applicant whose religious beliefs preclude him or her from taking the examination on one of these dates may apply to take the MPRE on the following day, Sunday. Requests to take the exam on Sunday must be in writing and must include a letter from the applicant's cleric confirming the applicant's affiliation with a recognized religious entity that observes its Sabbath throughout the year on Saturday. This documentation must be received by the late receipt deadline and must be sent with a copy of the online confirmation received after submission of an online application or with a completed paper application. E-mail or fax documents to mpre.ada@act.org or 319-337-1187. The applicant will be notified whether or not the request is granted.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to use the online registration. Applicants who apply by paper application will not be able to access their Admission Tickets or download their score reports online. Applicants should review the MPRE Information Booklet before completing a paper application. It is advisable to mail application materials well in advance of the deadline. This will allow time to check on the status of application materials prior to the deadline and, if necessary, to resolve any problems. NCBE cannot be responsible for materials lost in the mail or payments that cannot be processed.

Online applications must be received by 11:59 p.m. central time on the published deadline date. Paper applications must be received in the MPRE Application Department in Iowa City, Iowa, by 5:00 p.m. central time. Absolutely no applications will be accepted after the late application receipt deadline.

The MPRE is based on the law governing the conduct of lawyers, including the disciplinary rules of professional conduct currently articulated in the American Bar Association (ABA) Model Rules of Professional Conduct (MRPC) and the ABA Model Code of Judicial Conduct (CJC), as well as controlling constitutional decisions and generally accepted principles established in leading federal and state cases and in procedural and evidentiary rules.

The National Conference of Bar Examiners provides reasonable testing accommodations for MPRE examinees who have qualified disabilities as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendment Act of 2008 (ADAAA) and who provide appropriate documentation in a timely manner. If you are requesting accommodations due to a disability, you must provide all the supporting documentation with a copy of the online confirmation received after submission of an online application or with a completed paper application. All supporting documentation must be submitted each time you apply for the MPRE and must be received by the late application receipt deadline.

FROM ANNE LUKINGBEAL, ASSOCIATE DEAN AND DEAN OF STUDENTS

- The Weekly Perk for Faculty and Students
  Wednesday, February 1, 2012
  3:00-4:00 p.m. in the Foyer
  Sponsored by the Dean’s Office, the Dean of Students Office, and CLSA. Enjoy a cup of coffee with your faculty and friends, every Wednesday at 3:00 except during spring break.

- Multicultural Work environments I & II
  2013 and 2014 JD Students with F1 Visas. The law faculty offers a course in the law school to encourage multicultural work experience: Multicultural Work Environments I & II. This course DOES enable international students in F-1 visa status to use Curricular Practical Training work authorization.

  Eligibility & Procedures: The course is open only to those students who will be working during the summer in a country other than that of their citizenship. Course II is open only to those students who have completed course I. Each is a one (1)-credit, S/U course and may be taken as an elective in addition to the required degree credits. The course grade will appear on the student's transcript. Students working for private law firms must receive financial compensation.
Registration occurs in the spring, with a grade posted in the fall after the requirements are satisfied. Registration is online at: http://www.isso.cornell.edu/immigration/f1/law673.php beginning February 1, 2012, and ending June 1, 2012. Prior to registering for the course, students must obtain a summer internship offer. The internship may be in an organization which previously employed the student, but the position and work assignments should not substantially duplicate earlier work for the organization. Once that has been done, registration can be done online.

After you register online for the course, you will receive an approval email from Elizabeth Shedd or Sarah Hilsman at the International Students & Scholars Office. The email will explain that you need to bring a copy of that email along with your job offer letter to the ISSO (B50 Caldwell Hall) in order to obtain your work authorization. More information about Curricular Practical Training work authorization is available on the ISSO website at: http://www.isso.cornell.edu/immigration/f1/law673.php. The ISSO contacts are Elizabeth Shedd (ers82@cornell.edu) or Sarah Hilsman (sw57@cornell.edu).

You must notify the Law School’s Registrar if you change or drop the internship after registration. The internship may not be extended beyond the summer, and you may not drop the course after performing the internship without invalidating your work authorization.

Objective & Assignment: The goal of this course is to promote an understanding of the challenges encountered in the work environment as a result of cultural differences. To that end, students are required to complete a ten-page paper by September 15 following their summer internship.

For more information about this course, stop by the Registrar’s Office and ask for the one-page handout.

FROM JOHN DEROSA, ASSISTANT DEAN FOR STUDENT AND CAREER SERVICES AND LYNDSEY BULLOCK, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF CAREER SERVICES

UNIVERSITY OFFICE OF THE JUDICIAL CODES COUNSELOR (JCC)
SEEKS APPLICANTS
The Office of the Judicial Codes Counselor (JCC) is seeking applicants from the 1L class for the paid position of Associate Judicial Codes Counselor. The Office anticipates hiring two applicants. The JCC provides free assistance to anyone accused of violating the Campus Code of Conduct or Code of Academic Integrity. The JCC advises accused students of their rights under the disciplinary codes of the University, and represents students in informal and formal meetings, hearings, and appeals related to disciplinary infractions. In just the past year members of the Office have advised students on a range of matters including but not limited to assault, drug and alcohol possession, disorderly conduct, and plagiarism.

The JCC seeks applicants with a strong desire to participate in advocacy on behalf of fellow students, both graduate and undergraduate. The preferred applicant possesses a leadership or advocacy background with strong organizational and interpersonal skills.

An informational meeting for those interested in learning more about the JCC will be held on Wednesday, February 1, at 6:00 p.m. in a room TBA. Additionally, persons interested should prepare a one-page resume to be submitted between February 1 and February 6 at 12:00 p.m. Finally, the first round of interviews will take place on February 8 and 9. Please submit any questions or concerns to Kyle Hogan, kph48@cornell.edu, or Jessica Hittelman, jlh395@cornell.edu.

Scoops is the weekly publication of the Cornell Law School. Scoops publishes notices of Law School events, administrative notices, notices from student organizations and other informational notices of general interest to the Law School community. It is published every Monday while classes are in session. Items for the newsletter should be submitted to the Law School Registrar's Office or by email to: scoops@lawschool.cornell.edu no later than 12:00 Noon on Thursdays for inclusion in the following week's edition. Please note that items may be edited if necessary.
