I will be holding office hours for students on Tuesday afternoons between 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. Students wishing to see me may either sign up in advance with Liz Flint in room 263, by email (es232@cornell.edu) or by phone (607-255-3539).

FROM NAN COLVIN, REGISTRAR
Spring 12
University Course Pre-registration for fall 2012
Courses in Divisions Other than the Law School - Students interested in enrolling in courses in other divisions of the University for the fall 2012 semester may pre-enroll using the University Enrollment process. Law students will use the University system to select their non-law courses. The pre-registration period for law students to select non-law courses is scheduled for April 2-4, 2012. To pre-enroll you must use the Student Center at: http://studentcenter.cornell.edu .

If you do not know how to use the University Online Enrollment process, you should visit the University site that explains the process: http://registrar.sas.cornell.edu/Student/coursenroll-FAQ.html
Please Note: Pre-enrollment does not guarantee enrollment in the course. Students enrolling in non-law courses for JD credit will also need to complete the required petition with the Law School Registrar's office, at the Registrar's website: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu, Forms and Request section, Law Credit for Non-law courses. A student electing a course outside the Law School for credit or otherwise, must also register for at least 9 credit hours in the Law School each term. Regardless of the number of courses elected outside the Law School, a student must earn 72 semester credit hours in professional law subjects. This applies to all law students, including those in joint degree programs.

- Law School Course Pre-registration for fall 2012 - To the Classes of 2013 & 2014 - On-Line Pre-Registration for fall 2012 Law School courses will take place in early summer. You will be notified by email to your Cornell NetID email account when the pre-registration site is available. Instructions and details for on-line Law School Course Pre-registration, updated course information, registration forms, and degree requirements will be available on-line.

- Course Selection Panel [How to Choose Courses] - Thursday, April 19, 12:20-1:15 p.m. room 290
First-year students and any other interested students are invited to a Course Selection Session to review distribution recommendations, degree requirements, international offerings, clinical programs, concentration options, and to express ideas regarding sound course selection in the upperclass years. Questions and answers throughout the program. Pizza and beverage available.

  George Hay, Chair, Academic Programs and Planning Committee and Professor of Law, Laura Underkuffler, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Professor of Law, Larry Bush, Executive Director of Clarke Center for International and Comparative Legal Studies, Susan Hazeldean, Assistant Clinical Professor, Nan Colvin and Nancy Osborn, Registrar’s Office staff members, and CLSA representatives will be available to answer questions.

- Spring Term Examination Period
Examinations begin Wednesday, May 2
Examinations end Tuesday, May 15

- Using your lap top for spring 2012 exams - Installation of Exam4 software: April 18-25, 2012. You will receive information about the process by email to your Cornell NetID email address in mid-April. All students who wish to use their laptops for final exams will be required to download, install and test the Spring 2012 version of Exam4. Versions from other semesters have expired.

- Spring 2012 Final Examinations - Exam Conflicts - Students who have exam conflicts are reminded to notify the Law School Registrar's Office, in writing, using the online Deferral Request link at the Registrar’s website: http://registrar.lawschool.cornell.edu by Wednesday, April 11, 2012, of the conflict, and should note which exam they wish rescheduled. The exam schedule is available at the Registrar’s website at: https://support.law.cornell.edu/students/forms/Spring_Exam_Schedule.pdf

- Exams and dictionaries - JD students whose native or working language is not normally English may request the use of a non-legal dictionary for examinations by submitting a written request to the Dean of Students by Wednesday, April 11, 2012. JD students who have previously received permission to use a non-legal dictionary previously do not need to make another request. The non-legal dictionary must be supplied by the student and the dictionary may be in print or electronic format; provided, however, that any electronic dictionary must be a stand-alone dictionary with a set memory (e.g., a dictionary program that is loaded on a laptop computer does not qualify). All electronic dictionaries must be approved by the Registrar well in advance of the examinations.

- LL.M. students with questions regarding the use of a non-legal dictionary for examinations should contact Assistant Dean Charles Cramton.

Reminders To All Graduating Students

• New York Bar Application information will be discussed at the handwriting sessions scheduled below. You must attend ONE of these sessions:

  J.D. Students:  Monday, April 2, 9:30 a.m., room G85
                 Friday, April 6, 10:00 a.m., room G90

  LL.M. Students:  Wednesday, April 4, 3:30 p.m., room G90

On-line applications and instructions for submitting the New York State Bar application will be available April 1-April 30, 2012 at: http://www.nybarexam.org. Please print the Specimen of Applicants Handwriting form and bring it to one of the handwriting sessions. Those who are unable to attend any of the sessions should stop by the Registrar’s Office to make an appointment to complete the handwriting specimen.

• Certificates of Attendance/Graduation. A certificate of law school attendance/graduation is required by most state bar authorities. Some states require that the certificate be made on a form they provide, and others require it on Law School letterhead. Certificates are completed and mailed directly from the Law School Registrars Office. Certificates of graduation will be sent after May 27, 2012.

• Official Transcripts. The Office of the University Registrar provides official grade transcripts bearing the Cornell University seal and the signature of the University Registrar. Students must request an official transcript from the University Registrar’s Office website at http://transcript.cornell.edu in June after the Spring grades and degree have been posted. The request should include the information of where you would like it sent.

• Applications Requiring Fingerprinting (not all bar applications require fingerprinting)

  Fingerprinting is available on campus at the Public Safety Office, G-2 Barton Hall, 24 hours a day. You will need to take the fingerprint card with you, and two forms of picture ID.

• For 3Ls
2012 Graduate Fellowship Grants will be available to all J.D. graduates who have not yet secured permanent employment by graduation. The grants are designed to provide funding to support full-time volunteer work with eligible employers. These grants are designed to help you enhance your skills, knowledge and contacts. Details are below:

   Placement Types: You may choose to volunteer for a non-profit organization, government agency, or judge. In addition, you may elect to work with Cornell’s Legal Information Institute.

   Fellowship Duration: Fellowships may begin after September 4, 2012 and may extend to 6 months after your start date.

   Grant Amount: $1,000 per month, maximum $6,000.

   How to Secure Your Grant: Go to http://support.law.cornell.edu/career/FellowshipGrant/index.cfm and complete “Step 1” of the form by Tuesday, May 1, 2012. This just involves clicking the link and providing your name. You do not need to have secured a specific placement by May 1. This early registration deadline is designed to allow us to know, for planning purposes, how many of you might want the grant. Once you find a specific volunteer placement, you will then go back and complete “Step 2” of the registration form. Of course, you can decide later on not to take the grant if you find a permanent position.

   How to Find Your Fellowship: The Office of Public Service can advise you on identifying possible placements.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Karen Comstock (kvc2@cornell.edu) or Elizabeth Peck (ep83@cornell.edu).

BOOK EVENT

Green Card Stories: The Human Face of the Immigration Debate Discussion and Book Signing
Wednesday, April 4
Hangar Theatre, 801 Taughannock Boulevard, Ithaca, NY
Presentation 7:00-8:00 p.m., followed by reception and book signing
Join Steve Yale-Loehr, Cornell Law School adjunct professor, immigration attorney, and co-editor of the recently released book Green Card Stories for a book celebration and signing at the Hangar Theatre at Cass Park in Ithaca, NY, at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 4.

Professor Yale-Loehr will briefly discuss the need to reform our current immigration laws and also introduce his book Green Card Stories, which profiles 50 immigrants. Also speaking will be Sue Chaffee, head of the Immigrant Services Program at Ithaca’s Catholic Charities, and immigrants Alessio Balada and Dr. Srisatish Devapatla, who will share stories of struggle, perseverance, and triumph in their journey to become green card holders and U.S. citizens.

Green Card Stories will be available for $45 at the event. In the spirit of supporting immigrants in their quest to integrate into our community, a contribution of $10 per purchased book will be donated to the Immigrant Services Program of Ithaca’s Catholic Charities. The event is free and open to the public. To learn more about Green Card Stories, visit http://www.greencardstories.com/.

Ann Tenbrunsel
Tuesday, April 3
4:25-5:40 p.m.
Sage Hall B08 followed by reception and book signing in Ramin Parlor
Presented by the Samuel Curtis Johnson Graduate School of Management and the Law School

Dr. Ann E. Tenbrunsel (Ph.D., Northwestern University; M.B.A. Northwestern University; B.S.I.O.E. University of Michigan) is a professor in the College of Business Administration at the University of Notre Dame and is the Rex and Alice A. Martin Research Director of the Institute for Ethical Business Worldwide. Ann teaches at the executive, MBA, and undergraduate levels. Her current research interests focus on the psychology of ethical decision making, examining why employees, leaders and students behave unethically, despite their best intentions to behave to the contrary.

She is the author, co-author, or co-editor of six books on this topic—including Blind Spots (with Max Bazerman), Behavioral Ethics: Shaping an Emerging Field (with David De Cremer), Codes of Conduct: Behavioral Research into Business Ethics (with David Messick)—and over 50 research articles and chapters. Her research has been featured in interviews airing on MSNBC and National Public Radio, and adaptations, excerpts and references to her work have appeared in a variety of publications, including the New York Times, The Guardian, The Chronicle of Higher Education, Harvard Business Review, Forbes, Ethisphere Magazine, Investor’s Business Daily, and in blogs for Psychology Today and Freakonomics.

Sponsored by the Dr. Harry M. Day Charitable Foundation. Free and open to all.
