LAW 6204 Cornell Prison Education Program Teaching Practicum
Fall, Spring. 3 Credits.
S/U only
Limited enrollment. Included in 20 credit rule. By permission of the Director of the Cornell Prison Education program.
In order to teach a course in the prison system, you must apply to the Cornell Prison Education Program (http://cpep.cornell.edu/get-involved/). Note that the deadlines for course proposals come far in advance of the semester. Once you are approved to teach a course in the prisons, please have the Director of the Cornell Prison Education program, or selected representative, sign below.

The Cornell Prison Education Program will approve up to four law students per semester chiefly on the basis of their course proposals and resumes. Students in the Practicum will co-teach a law-related course at either Auburn or Cayuga correctional facilities, as part of the Cornell Prison Education Program (CPEP), which offers college courses to inmates working toward their associates’ degrees. Interested students should secure a full-time faculty advisor and submit a course proposal to the CPEP. Accepted students will design a detailed course syllabus, procure teaching materials, and teach a 2-hour class on a weekly basis. Students will also be expected to create, administer, and evaluate midterm and final examinations. Students must travel to and from a correctional facility on a weekly basis, at their own expense. Limited funds are available for teaching materials. Students who have secured a faculty advisor and who have received approval for their course from CPEP should direct inquiries about funding to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Course is limited to J.D. students.
