Fall 2017 Exam Modes

Closed book exams
Students cannot bring hard-copy materials to exam or access materials on their computer’s hard drive.

Antitrust Law-Hay
Arbitration Law and Practice-Yusem/Ranieri
Deals Sem: Real Estate Transactions-Bernardo/Wertheimer
Evidence-Colb
Remedies-Sherwin
Trusts and Estates-Sherwin

Open book exams
Students can bring hard-copy materials, whether specified or unrestricted, but they cannot access materials on their computer’s hard drive. Check with your instructor regarding restrictions on which hard-copy materials may be accessed.

Administrative Law-Stiglitz
Civil Procedure-Cavanagh
Civil Procedure-Clermont
Contracts-Dagan
Contracts-Hillman
Corporate Finance-Omarova
Criminal Law-Garvey (students may bring their casebook, nothing else)
Criminal Law-Ohlin
Criminal Procedure: Adjudications-Blume
Health Law-Whitehead
Insurance Law-Heise
International Human Rights-Ndulo
Law Governing Lawyers-Wendel
Nonprofit Organizations-Pollak

Open mode exams
Students can bring hard-copy materials and access materials on their computer’s hard drive. Check with your instructor regarding restrictions on which hard-copy materials may be accessed.

Bankruptcy-Lienau
Business Organizations-Gramitto Ricci
Business Organizations-Hockett
Business Organizations-Whitehead
Civil Procedure-Clopton
Civil Procedure-Gardner
Comparative Law-Lasser
Conflict of Laws-Riles
Constitutional Law-Chafetz
Contracts-Rachlinski
Criminal Law-Margulies
Employment Law-Schwab
Family Law-Bowman
Federal Income Taxation-Green
Intellectual Property-Liivak
International Commercial Arbitration-Barcelo
International Taxation-Green
Property-Alexander
Taxation of Corps and Shareholders-Green