To All Students:

1. An examination may be deferred only if a student has examinations scheduled in direct conflict with each other, two in one day, more than two exams in the first week, three in three days (same week), or four in one week. An examination week is Monday through Saturday.

2. NO examinations may be taken before the scheduled examination period.

3. Any examinations permitted to be deferred will be rescheduled by the Administrative Committee at the earliest possible examination period consistent with the rules above.

4. All requests for deferral of examinations must be submitted to the Law Registrar, using the online Exam Deferral form, on or before 12:00 noon on November 3.

5. Students must arrive at their assigned exam room by 8:15 a.m. for an 8:30 a.m. exam, 9:45 for an 10:00 a.m. exam, 1:15 p.m. for a 1:30 exam.

6. Access to notes on your computer may be used only with faculty authorized open mode Exam4 software. All other permitted materials must be in hard copy.

7. Exams and dictionaries - New JD students whose native or working language is not normally English may request the use of a non-legal translation dictionary for examinations by submitting a written request to the Registrar by November 3. A non-legal translation dictionary is a resource that lists words and their definitions and possibly the equivalent word in another language (such as a Spanish-English dictionary). Dictionaries that contain additional information such as grammar sections or sections entitled for “advanced learners” are not allowed. It is a violation of the Code of Academic Integrity to have any highlighting or other writing in or on the dictionary. Your name may be written in English on the inside cover, but no other markings are allowed. Electronic dictionaries must be a stand-alone dictionary with a set memory (e.g., a dictionary program that is loaded on a laptop computer does not qualify. A dictionary that has the ability to accept SD cards or USB drives does not qualify). All electronic dictionaries must be approved by the Registrar by November 3. LLM students with questions regarding the use of a non-legal translation dictionary for examinations should contact Graduate Legal Studies. Exchange students with questions regarding the use of a non-legal translation dictionary for examinations should contact Dawne Peacock.

8. Requests for relief on any other ground will be granted by the Dean of Students only. Such requests must be written and submitted to The Law Registrar on or before 12:00 noon on November 3 unless based on an emergency. If an emergency arises, contact the Dean of Students as soon as possible.

9. All students are reminded to check the examination schedule before finalizing travel plans. Deferrals for travel arrangements will not be granted.

10. Take-home examinations: Students with take-home examinations are reminded that it is the policy of the Law School that the exam questions and answers must be handed in by 8:15 a.m. for an 8:30 a.m. exam, 1:15 p.m. for a 1:30 exam. All permitted materials must be in hard copy. Printing and handwriting problems must not exceed 10% of the total exam.

11. If a student’s laptop fails during the exam the student must immediately notify the proctor. The student must not turn off the laptop or attempt to do anything with Exam4. And the student must not reboot the laptop unless the proctor instructs the student to do so. The Registrar’s Office with IT staff will reasonably assist to resolve the situation. The student may be required to handwrite the remainder of the exam. After the exam has concluded, an attempt may be made to retrieve any incomplete exam from the student's hard drive. If the incomplete exam cannot be retrieved within 24-hours, the Dean of Students, in consultation with the instructor, will determine remedial options, if any.
