Exam Basics

• Arrive to the classroom 15 minutes before the exam start time.

• The exam schedule with room assignments will be posted on the Registrar’s website during the week of November 27.

• Cell phones and all other electronic devices except those approved for use in taking the examination, must be turned off and stowed away before the exam begins.

• You may use the restroom facilities; however, you must leave all materials in the room, including all phones, and any other electronic devices.

• You may not use noise-cancelling earphones. The proctor will distribute earplugs.

• Some exams require the use of a calculator. The Registrar’s Office will provide basic calculators for those exams. You may not use your own.

• Feeling Ill: If you are sick on the day of your exam and start the exam, you must finish the exam that day. If it’s before the exam has started, contact the Registrar at (607)255-3628 or law.registrar@cornell.edu and the exam can be rescheduled.

• Bad Weather: Check the Registrar’s website for information on how to find out if the University is open or closed. The Law School follows the University policy.
Follow the Proctor’s Instructions

- The proctor will begin by reading instructions – Listen carefully!

- Be cordial and professional in interacting with the proctor and Registrar’s staff.

- The proctor is not there to answer questions about the substance of the exam or to be an IT person.

- If you have a computer problem during the exam, raise your hand to notify the proctor. An IT tech will come to the classroom to try to solve the problem. Continue working on your exam.

- Start and stop typing/writing when you are told to do so by the proctor. No exceptions.

- The proctor will tell you when you have 15, 5, and 1 minute left. You must stop typing/writing at that time.

- If you are handwriting your exam, you must label your exam books before time is called.
Maintaining Anonymity

• Law school exams are graded anonymously. Do not write your name or any identifying information on any exam materials, EXCEPT the exam coversheet.
Exam Envelope

Your exam number is on the top left corner of your exam envelope.
Exam Cover Sheet

NAME: LYNDSEY CLARK
EXAM NUMBER: 1
COURSE: 5961-1 Civil Procedure
INSTRUCTOR: Cherna

SIGNATURE: Signature required below.

It is your responsibility to read and follow the exam instructions provided by the course instructor.

You will be taking the examination under the provisions of the Law School Code of Academic Integrity (Giere Code).

If you suspect a violation of the honor code you are to report the violation to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in writing at the conclusion of the examination.

It is a violation of the Honor Code for any student to contact a teacher about an exam after the exam has begun or at any time until grades are final. Any problems or issues should be addressed in writing to the Registrar.

Students must sit at least two other seats whenever possible.

All electronic devices, except those approved for use in taking the examination, must be turned off and stowed away in a backpack or the like before the exam may begin. You may not turn on or use any electronic device during an exam. This includes cell phones.

You may use the rest room facilities; however, you must leave all materials in the room including all phones, paper, and any other electronic devices.

When time is called at the end of the examination, you must stop typing or writing immediately and close your exam answer. The law school administration wants you to be fully aware that anyone typing or writing after time is called, even merely finishing a sentence, will be reported in violation of the law school honor code and be subject to serious sanctions. Once the exam has ended, students will be expected to upload their exam file immediately. Note: If you encounter any problems uploading your exam file, please contact the Registrar’s Office immediately.

Laptop exams - If your laptop fails during the exam, notify the proctor who will assist you. Do not turn off your laptop or attempt to do anything with Exam4. Exams may not be used during exams. All permitted materials must be in hand copy.

Students may not start writing, even notes, until the Proctor announces that the exam has started.

It is your responsibility to record your exam number, not your name, on the Exam4 student menu at the beginning of each of your laptop examinations.

The exam software creates an encrypted copy of your exam. Do not remove the file from your computer. Do not rename the file.

You will be contacted by the Registrar’s Office and asked to bring in your laptop to the office if printing problems are encountered with your exam file.

You may not discuss this exam with anyone who is not sitting for this exam at this time. At the end of the exam you must turn in all exam materials, including any scrap material you have used.

Once an exam has started you must complete the exam during the allotted time.

I certify I will abide by all of the provisions and have provided my signature below.

Do not remove this page from your exam. Do not write your name or otherwise identify yourself anywhere else throughout the examination.

Required — you must provide a valid telephone number where the Law School Registrar’s Office may reach you between May 2-15, 2012. Tel. no. __________________________

Laptop Exam Procedures

• Exam registration is a two step process. First, click on the link on the Law Registrar’s website. Next follow the link to download Exam4 software.

• You must take a practice exam and become familiar with the software prior to your first exam.

• Shutdown and restart your computer 24 hours before your first exam. Then take a practice exam. If you have any problems, contact the Registrar’s Office right away.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 1

Verify that the expiration date is Dec 31, 2017. Old versions will not work.

On the first screen, click Prepare to start new exam and then click Next.
On this screen, enter your Exam ID (found on your exam envelope). Enter it in both spots.

Listen carefully to the proctor. The first time through, everyone will select F17 Practice Exam. The second time through you will select your actual exam “F17 Civ Pro-Cavanagh” for example. Again, listen to the proctor. He will tell you which one to select.

*When you are practicing using the software prior to Dec 6, you can enter any exam ID number and select any exam.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 3

On this screen, you are verifying the information.

Click this box and press OK.

If you made a mistake, you can select the Go Back button.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 4

On this screen, just click Next.

All exams are printed in a standard font, size, and double-spaced.

The timer feature is not available. The proctor will tell you when you have 15, 5, and 1 minute left.
On this screen, click the small Got It box, then click Next.

By clicking this box, you are confirming that if your computer crashes you will notify the proctor and will not try to fix it yourself.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 6

On this screen, click the small Exam Mode box, then click Next.

Some of your final exams may be Open Book, Open Mode, or Closed Mode.

More information about the different exam modes will be sent out via email on November 27.
WAIT on this screen until the proctor tells you to click on Begin Exam.

It is important that everyone begins the exam at the same time.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 8

Once you click on Begin Exam, your computer will start running a security check. This will typically take 2 minutes or less.

While the security check is running, start reading your exam question.

If the security check takes a long time (over 2 min), raise your hand and notify the proctor. Remain calm.

Once the security check ends, you will see a large white box appear. This is where you will type your exam.
Spell Check + Word Count

Spell check does not run automatically. You must select spell check from the Tools menu to check your answers.

Word and character counts: Available under the Tools>Show Document Statistics> on the toolbar.
Exam4 Software Demo – Step 9

When you are finished with your exam, click on the End Exam Now button in the top left corner.

Then click the Submit Electronically button.
This is the screen you will see if your file was submitted successfully.

If you have trouble connecting to the wifi, or do not see this screen after submitting your exam, go to the atrium. An IT tech will be there to help you. Again, remain calm.

Click the I understand box and click OK. Then click the file and save options button in the top left corner and click exit.
After the Exam

• Once the proctor calls time, put all exam materials (exam packet, coversheet, scrap paper, blue books (if used) back into the exam envelope and return the envelope to the proctor. Do NOT leave the room with exam materials.

• If you have problems uploading your exam, once you’ve turned in all exam materials to the proctor, go to the Atrium. IT techs will be there to assist you.

• Remain calm, your exam has been saved.

• Turn on your cell phone and check your email within a half hour of finishing your exam. If the Registrar’s staff have any questions about your exam, they will call and email you.

• Do not contact any faculty member with questions about your exam until grades have been posted. If you have concerns about your exam, email the Registrar at law.registrar@cornell.edu.
