Rule #1: 20-credit limit on courses that are not regular law school courses.
Students may take a maximum of 20 credits in courses that are not regular law school courses. Courses subject to this 20-credit maximum are:

- Externships
  - 7812 Child Advocacy Clinic I
  - 7813 Child Advocacy Clinic II
  - 7830 Summer Externship
  - 7832 Externship - Full Time
  - 7834 Externship - Part Time
  - 7862 Externship - Pro Bono Scholars Program
  - 7951 US Attorney’s Office Externship

- Directed Readings
  - 6301 Directed Reading

- Supervised Writing & Teaching
  - 6204 Cornell Prison Education Program Teaching Practicum
  - 6861 Supervised Teaching
  - 6871 Supervised Writing
  - 6881 Supervised Writing/Teaching Lawyering Honors Fellow Program

- Clinics taught by instructors whose primary employment is not in the Law School
  - 7833 Criminal Defense Trial Practicum
  - 7840 Estate Planning Clinic I
  - 7921 Prosecution Trial Clinic
  - 7923 Protest and Civil Disobedience Defense Practicum
  - 7925 NY Attorney General Clinic
  - 7960 Technology, Innovation and the Law Clinic

Rule #2: 31-credit limit on externships and clinics
A student may take no more than 31 credits in courses of these types: externships and all clinics. A complete list of externships and clinics is available in the Courses by Category document.

Rule #3. 13-credit limit on courses taken outside of the Law School
A student may take no more than 13 credits outside of a law-school curriculum. This includes all courses taught in University divisions and not cross-listed in the Law School. The following courses are cross-listed in the Law School and are considered to be regular law school courses and inside the law school. They are not subject to the limitations of Rules #1 or #3 above:

- 6019 Dispute Resolution Practicum
- 6024 Managing and Resolving Conflict
- 6027 Campus Mediation Practicum
- 6080 Advanced Issues in Mediation
- 6738 Negotiation Skills