Textbook Information

1. Go to https://store.cornell.edu/default.aspx
2. Click the Shop Now button.
3. Click on the shop textbooks button.
4. Look up your textbook info by course number.

   If you do not see the screenshot, below, click the reselect courses button in the upper left corner.

   If you don’t know the course number, open the course descriptions page in another tab.

   http://support.law.cornell.edu/Students/students/CourseDescriptions/index.cfm

5. Here are the fall 2017 1L course numbers for reference:
   LAW 5001 Civil Procedure
   LAW 5021 Constitutional Law
   LAW 5041 Contracts
   LAW 5061 Criminal Law
   LAW 5081 Lawyering
   LAW 5121 Property

6. Once you’ve added all your courses (using the choose a course drop-down), click the green button.
7. You will see all the textbooks (by class) on the left side of the screen. You can purchase your books from the Cornell Store, Amazon, or any other book vendor. CLSA will have a used book sale on August 24 if you wish to buy your books at that time.

The Law Library has copies of all textbooks on reserve, if you need to use a copy in the interim. You can check them out for a short period of time but cannot write notes/highlight in those copies. You should not rely on the library copy all semester.

Before buying an ebook, check with your professor about their final exam. The exam software only allows use of ebooks for OPEN MODE exams. If your professor has questions about the different exam modes, he/she should contact the Registrar’s Office.

8. If you do not see textbook information for one of your classes, you can contact the professor. Their email address is listed in their faculty bio.
